UNIVERSITY of the CUMBERLANDS

UNCOMMON

You can experience uncommon, unprecedented and virtually unlimited opportunities at University of the Cumberland. Apply today! Our admissions application process varies, depending on whether you are a first semester freshman, a re-entering student, or a transfer student from another college or university. All applications are reviewed individually and additional information may be requested.

FRESHMAN ADMISSION

- 1. A completed application;
- 2. The non-refundable application fee ($30.00) or a waiver of fee request from ACT, SAT, or the high school guidance counselor;
- 3. An official high school transcript with the grade point average computed on a 4.0 scale;
- 4. Official scores from the ACT or SAT. ACT and/or SAT score report labels appearing on high school transcripts are acceptable for admission decisions. However, an official Profile is required for athletic eligibility.

TRANSFER ADMISSION

- 1. A completed application;
- 2. The application fee ($30.00);
- 3. An official transcript from ALL colleges you have attended.

RE-ENTERING TRANSFER ADMISSION

Attended another college or university since last enrollment at University of the Cumberland (Cumberland College).
