Speech and Debate Forensics Scholarship Application

Eligibility Applicants are expected to be:

- High School Seniors
- Have at least a 3.0 cumulative grade point average
- Be accepted for admission at the University of the Cumberland. You do not need to be accepted at the time of your scholarship application, but we do expect that you would have applied.

Online application is at <http://www.ucumberlands.edu/admissions/apply/>

Print this form, fill in the blanks and mail to:

Jay Bourne
Assistant Professor and Director of Forensics
University of the Cumberland
6000 College Station Drive
Williamsburg, KY 40769
jbourne@ucumberlands.edu

Important Note- There is NOT a requirement of high school speech and/or debate competition to qualify for a forensics scholarship. If you have experience in other areas of competitive speaking, debate or performing arts (such as theater) simply list those in detail at the end of the application in the additional information section.
