Accreditation

University of the Cumberlands is accredited to award baccalaureate, master’s, and doctoral degrees by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033 • (404) 679-4500 • Fax: (404) 679-4558. Interested constituents may contact SACS 1) to inquire about the University’s accreditation status, 2) to file a third-party comment as part of its decennial review, or 3) to file a complaint alleging non-compliance with a standard or requirement. Any other inquiries, such as those concerning admissions requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be addressed directly to the University and not to the Commission’s Office.

Non-Discrimination Policy

In compliance with federal law, including the provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008, the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act as amended, and the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008, University of the Cumberlands does not illegally discriminate against individuals on the basis of their race, sex, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, military service, or genetic information in the administration of its education policies, programs, activities, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletic or other university-administered programs, or in employment. The following persons have been designated to handle inquiries and charges of violation of the nondiscrimination policies:

Disability, Section 504, and ADA Coordinator
Dr. Tom Fish, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs

University Mission Statement

University of the Cumberlands has historically served students primarily, but not exclusively, from the beautiful mountain regions of Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Virginia, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Ohio and Alabama which have traditionally been described as Appalachia. The University's impact can be seen in the achievements of its graduates who have assumed roles of leadership in this region and throughout the nation. While located in the resort like area of Appalachia, with emphasis primarily on serving the beautiful mountain area, the University now reaches into every state and around the world through its student body and alumni. UC continues to offer promising students of all backgrounds a broad-based liberal arts program enriched with Christian values. The University strives for excellence in all of its endeavors and expects from students a similar dedication to this pursuit. Its commitment to a strong academic program is joined with a commitment to a strong work ethic. UC encourages students to think critically and creatively so that they may better prepare themselves for lives of responsible service and leadership. This focus of its undergraduate programs is extended and extrapolated into its graduate programs. These programs prepare professionals to be servant-leaders in their disciplines and communities, linking research with practice and knowledge with ethical decision-making in the pursuit of the life-more-abundant for both the individual and society.
Dear Student,

On behalf of the University of the Cumberlands and the Department of Criminal Justice, I would like to welcome you to the Masters of Justice Administration Online Program. We are dedicated to providing a convenient alternative to higher education and that is why our program is offered 100% online.

The program is designed to allow the convenience of online learning without sacrificing the quality and integrity of traditional higher education. Our faculty and staff are dedicated to offering you the opportunity to succeed in the field of Criminal Justice because we truly understand how difficult it can be to balance family, work and education. This catalog can assist you with what you can expect in your program.

I believe you have chosen this field because you have a passion and belief in the Criminal Justice system as well as the convenience our program offers. Our faculty has a vast knowledge of the Criminal Justice system because we all have experience in the field. I look forward to working with you and sharing my knowledge and experiences with you.

Sincerely,

Justin W. DeCecca
Chair, Department of Criminal Justice
Associate Professor, University of the Cumberlands
Program Purpose and Goals

The Master of Science in Justice Administration program provides pre-professionals a strong foundation in the knowledge, skills, and critical thinking required in the various careers served by this discipline. It also prepares in-service professionals for leadership positions, as well as for teaching positions at the baccalaureate level or at training academies at the local, state, and federal levels. For all of its candidates, the program nurtures essential professional attributes, providing a broad knowledge base of the criminal justice system and fostering the professional dispositions and ethics required for successful leadership in justice administration.

The program seeks to

- Prepare students for professional careers and advancement within the criminal justice system.
- Provide students with an understanding of the theoretical and philosophical principles of the courts, law enforcement, community-based corrections and juvenile justice.
- Develop critical thinking and communication skills through the application of statistics and social science research methods.
- Prepare students for leadership positions within criminal justice agencies at the local, state, and federal levels as well as in the private sector.

Program Overview

The Master of Justice Administration (MJA) program is designed to serve recent baccalaureate graduates and in-service professionals who wish to secure further training in and credentials for effective service and leadership in justice administration. The program’s features and course rotation described below enable a candidate to complete the MJA degree easily within 24 months. In fact, by taking four courses most semesters (two courses in each of two bi-terms), a student can complete the program in 18 months (four semesters).

Online Delivery
The online delivery and curricular structure of the MJA program allows a candidate to begin during any term of the academic year.

Bi-Term Class Schedule
Courses are offered according to the same calendar as the University’s other online graduate programs. Classes are scheduled in eight-week sessions during the fall, spring and summer semesters, with two bi-term sessions offered each semester. Full-time degree candidates normally take two classes per bi-term.
Program Policies and Procedures

The MJA Program Director is responsible for routine administration of the policies and procedures of the program, under the oversight of the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Any appeals concerning program policies and procedures must be made in writing through this chain of administrative oversight.

Admission Requirements
Admission to the proposed master’s program will be based on evidence that the applicant has demonstrated academic proficiency and the capability for success at the graduate level. Documentation for the following items must be received before an admission decision is made:

- Completed graduate application form with application fee.
- Official transcripts for all undergraduate and graduate work from accredited colleges or universities.
- A bachelor’s degree within the past 10 years with an undergraduate major in the social sciences, such as criminal justice, human services or social work, sociology, history, political science, or psychology.
- A cumulative undergraduate grade point average (GPA) of 3.00.
- Undergraduate courses (with grades of “B” or better) in the following areas:
  - Research design or research methods
  - Statistics
  - An introductory course in an area of the social sciences
  - An internship in an area of the social sciences or professional experience in a related field
These courses are considered prerequisites for full admission into the program.
- A 500-word writing sample focusing on the applicant’s academic preparation, professional experience and aspirations in pursuing a master’s in Justice Administration.
- Three letters of reference assessing the applicant’s academic and professional potential and the character and maturity of the applicant. One letter must be from a member of the law enforcement community.
- Successful completion of an interview with the Program Director or a faculty representative.
- Documentation of language fluency for non-native speakers of English, such as a score report from the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). The minimum acceptable TOEFL or IELTS scores for admission are
  - Paper-based TOEFL (PBT) – 550
  - Internet-based TOEFL (IBT) – 79
  - IELTS – 6
Conditional Admission
An applicant whose undergraduate transcript does not meet the minimum requirements as defined above may be admitted to the program conditionally. The terms of Conditional Admission may include

1. Completion of specified undergraduate prerequisite courses during the first two semesters of enrollment with grades of “B” or better.
2. Maintenance of a GPA of 3.0 during the first nine hours of master’s level coursework.

Failure to fulfill these or any other terms of conditional admission by the end of two semesters (or nine credit hours of coursework) will normally result in suspension from the program. (See additional discussion of Academic Standing later in this document.)

Advanced Standing
Candidates for the MJA degree may be admitted with Advanced Standing if they have completed career development training through the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council (KLEC). Candidates awarded Advanced Standing will receive six hours of transfer credit in either CROL 661 or CROL 662, depending upon the professional development they have completed through the Kentucky Department of Criminal Justice Training (DOCJT). These credits fulfill the specialization component of the MJA degree.

- Law Enforcement Officer Track – With successful completion of the DOCJT Intermediate Law Enforcement Officer/or Advanced Deputy sheriff (160 clock hours of training) Plus the Advanced Law Enforcement Officer training (160 clock hours of training), applicants are eligible for 6 credit hours through CROL 661.
- Law Enforcement Manager Track -- With successful completion of two of the following DOCJT training tracks, applicants are eligible for 6 credit hours through CROL 662: a) Law Enforcement Supervisor (160 hours of training), b) Law Enforcement Manager (200 to 400 hours of advanced training), or 3) Law Enforcement Executive or Law Enforcement Chief Executive (120 to 200 hours training).

Formal documentation of these training hours must be filed with the Program Director for review and submission to the Registrar before credit is awarded for CROL 661 or CROL 662. These KLEC training programs cannot be combined with or substituted by any other DOCJT programs for MJA credits. Program applicants seeking Advanced Standing must also meet all other requirements for full (unconditional) admission to the MJA program. Candidates who have already been fully admitted to the program and wish for KLEC credits to fulfill their degree Specialization requirement must apply to the Program Director with proper documentation.

Transfer and Course Credit Policy
A maximum of six semester hours of credit may be accepted as transfer credit counting toward the MJA degree, subject to the approval of the Program Director and the Registrar. Any coursework offered for transfer credit must have been earned in a graduate program at a regionally accredited institution within the last five years. Transfer credits from other institutions must be in courses equivalent to courses in the program. Advanced Standing granted for KLEC credits counts as the maximum of six semester hours of transfer credit.
Grading
The Justice Administration program uses the following grades and quality points:

A  Superior performance, four quality points are earned for each semester hour with a grade of “A”
B  Performance distinctly above average, three quality points are earned for each semester hour with a grade of “B”
C  Average performance, two quality points are earned for each semester with a grade of “C”
F  Failure, given for unsatisfactory work, no quality points.
W  Withdrawn from class without punitive grade.
WP Withdrawn passing
WF Withdrawn failing.
AF  Failure due to excessive absences.
I  Incomplete, assigned only in instances where a small unit of work is not complete because of verifiable, extenuating circumstances. An “I” contract is submitted to the Registrar’s Office with each “I” grade assigned.

The grade point average is computed on all graduate course work with the exception of “W” or “WP.” The grade of “I” is computed as an “F” in determining qualifications for candidacy. If the grade point average is below 3.0 (B), the candidacy application is held until the incomplete is cleared and the grade earned is then considered in determining the grade point average. Grade “F” cannot be used toward degree or non-degree programs but will be used toward computing GPA. Candidates for a graduate degree are required to have a combined cumulative grade point average of “B” in all courses. A “W” or “WP” grade has no bearing on the grade point average. A “WF” or “AF” is the equivalent of an “F” grade. Students wishing to withdraw prior to completing the semester should complete an official withdrawal form from the Office of Academic Affairs.

The grade of incomplete is awarded only when legitimate circumstances warrant. The grade of “I” will be recorded on the graduate student’s transcript and will remain until the faculty member awarding this grade makes the appropriate change or until the time specified on the “I” contract expires. The maximum length of time an “I” may remain on a transcript is one calendar year. At the end of a one calendar year period, the incomplete will change to the grade of “F” if the student has not completed the course requirement as specified by the instructor. Each submitted incomplete must be accompanied by a valid contract for this grade. This contract will indicate all of the necessary steps to be taken by the student to satisfactorily change the grade of “I”.

Academic Appeals
A student wishing to appeal a grade must appeal first to the professor of the course. If the situation remains unresolved, the student may then appeal to the Program Director. Following the ruling of the Director, either the professor or the student may file a complaint with the Academic Appeals Committee of the University. This formal written appeal must be filed by the end of the 4th week of classes in the next regular term following the term in which the course in question was taken. The Academic Appeals Committee then gathers information from the student, the instructor, and any other relevant parties. The Committee will deliver its recommendation on the complaint to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. After reviewing this recommendation and concurring with or amending it, the Vice President for Academic Affairs then delivers it to the faculty member involved in the initial appeal.
Affairs will inform the student and instructor of the disposition of the complaint no later than the last day of classes of the term in which the complaint was filed.

An appeal of any application of program policy made by the Director of the program may also be filed with the Vice President for Academic Affairs, who will make the final determination in the matter.

Withdrawal
Students may voluntarily withdraw from the Justice Administration program in accordance following the University’s general policies and procedures.

Readmission
Any individual who has previously matriculated and failed to complete the entire program of study within the required time period will be required to initiate a new application for admission. Likewise, applicants who have been previously offered admission into the Program but failed to matriculate in the designated class may also be required to initiate a new application for admission.

Student Privacy and Informed Consent
Students pursuing a Master of Arts in Justice Administration are granted privacy through the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) enacted to protect the privacy associated with educational records, to establish the rights of students to inspect and review their educational records and to provide guidelines for the correction of inaccurate or misleading data through informal and formal hearings.

Privacy Rights of Students
The University is subject to the provisions of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). This federal law affords students certain rights with respect to the student's education records. These rights are:

1. The right to inspect and review the student's education records within 45 days of the day the University receives a request for access. Students should submit to the Office of the Registrar written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Registrar will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place the records may be inspected.

2. The right to request the amendment of the student's education records that the student believes are inaccurate. Students may ask the University to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate. They should write the Registrar, clearly identify the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate. If the Registrar decides not to amend as requested, the Registrar will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of his or her right to a hearing regarding the request and will provide the student with additional information regarding the hearing procedures.

3. The right to consent to disclosures of personally identifiable information contained in the student's education records, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent. One exception which permits disclosure without consent is disclosure to school officials with legitimate educational interests. A school official is a person employed by the University in an administrative, supervisory, academic, research, or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and health staff); a person or company with whom the University has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee, such as a disciplinary or grievance committee, or assisting another school official in performing his or her tasks. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility. Upon request, the University discloses education records without consent to officials of another school in which a student seeks or intends to enroll.

The University may also disclose without the student's consent "directory information" unless the student has advised the Registrar in writing at least five days following registration that the student does not wish part or all of the directory information to be made public. Once filed, this instruction becomes a permanent part of the student's record until the student instructs the University, in writing, to have the request removed. The primary purpose of directory information is to allow the University to include this type of information in certain University publications, the media, and outside organizations. The University has designated the following as examples of directory information: The student's name, addresses including electronic mail address, telephone numbers, date and place of birth, major field of study, degree sought, attained class level, expected date of completion of degree requirements and graduation, degrees and awards received, picture, dates of attendance, full or part-time enrollment status, the previous educational agency or institution attended, class rosters, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of athletic team members and denominational preference. The University may disclose education records in certain other circumstances, but shall do so only upon the authorization of the Registrar.

4. The right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA. The name and address of the office which administers FERPA and to which complaints are to be sent is: Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC, 20202-4605.

Office of Financial Planning
To learn more about financial aid options, please contact the Office of Financial Planning by calling 606-539-4220.

Graduation Financial Clearance
Full payment of an account or satisfactory financial arrangements of an account for all charges for previous semesters are due on or before registration. No candidate having an unpaid account shall receive financial clearance for the release of an official report of grades, a transcript of credits, or a diploma. Candidates not in a position to pay the full amount of tuition at registration should contact the Bursar’s Office prior to enrollment.
Cancellation Deadlines (ALL Undergraduate/Graduate Programs)
Any student that does not cancel prior to their required deadline will be assessed a minimum fee of $150 for classes and a minimum fee of $150 for room & board. Deadline dates are posted with the Registrar Office and Bursar Office.

Refund Policy
Students must officially withdraw through the Office of Academic Affairs. Students who fail to officially withdraw forfeit all rights to a refund or reduction in fees.

If a student officially withdraws after the posted cancellation deadline and on or before the first day of the term, they will be charged a non-cancellation fee of $150 for tuition and $150 for room and board for the fall and spring term. There is no non-cancellation fee for the summer term(s). If a student officially withdraws after the first day of classes, they will be charged an administrative withdrawal fee of $100 for the fall and spring terms and $50 fee for the summer and bi-terms. A student is not eligible for any financial aid prior to the first day of class attendance. No Refund of Tuition or fees will be applied for dropping a course after the last day to add a course for the term has expired.

Treatment of Title IV Aid When a Student Withdraws
The law specifies how your school must determine the amount of Title IV program assistance that you earn if you withdraw from school. The title IV programs that are covered by this law are: Federal Pell Grants, Academic Competitiveness Grants, National SMART grants, TEACH Grants, Stafford Loans, PLUS Loans, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOGs), and Federal Perkins Loans.
When you withdraw during your payment period or period of enrollment (your school can define these for you and tell you which one applies) the amount of Title IV program assistance that you have earned up to that point is determined by a specific formula. If you received (or your school or parent received on your behalf) less assistance than the amount that you earned, you may be able to receive those additional funds. If you received more assistance than you earned, the excess funds must be returned by the school and/or you.

The amount of assistance that you have earned is determined on a prorated basis. For example, if you completed 30% of your payment period or period of enrollment, you earn 30% of the assistance you are originally scheduled to receive. Once you have completed more than 60% of the payment period or period of enrollment, you earn all the assistance that you were scheduled to receive for that period. If you did not receive all of the funds that you earned, you may be due a post-withdrawal disbursement. If your post-withdrawal disbursement includes loan funds, your school must get your permission before it can disburse them. You may choose to decline some or all of the loan funds so that you don’t incur additional debt.

Your school may automatically use all or a portion of your post-withdrawal disbursement of grant funds for tuition, fees, and room and board charges (as contracted with the school). The school needs your permission to use the post-withdrawal grant disbursement for all other school charges. If you do not give your permission (some schools ask for this when you enroll), you will be offered the funds. However, it may be in your best interest to allow the school to keep the funds to reduce your debt at the school.

If you receive (or your school or parents receive on your behalf) excess Title IV program funds that must be returned, your school must return a portion of the excess equal to the lesser of: 1. Your institutional charges multiplied by the unearned percentage of your funds, or 2. The entire amount of excess funds.

The school must return this amount even if it didn’t keep this amount of your Title IV program funds. If your school is not required to return all of the excess funds, you must return the remaining amount. Any loan funds that you must return, you (or your parent for a PLUS loan) repay in accordance with the terms of the promissory note. That is, you make scheduled payments to the holder of the loan over a period of time.

Any amount of unearned grant funds that you must return is called an overpayment. The maximum amount of a grant overpayment that you must repay is half of the grant funds you received or were scheduled to receive. You must make arrangements with your school or the Department of Education to return the unearned grant funds.

The requirements for Title IV program funds when you withdraw are separate from any refunds policy that your school may have. Therefore, you may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. Your school may also charge you for any Title IV program funds that the school was required to return. If you don’t already know what your school’s refund policy is, you can ask your school for a copy. Your school can also provide you with the requirements and procedures for officially withdrawing from school.
If you have questions about your Title IV program funds, you can call the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-fedaid (1-800-433-3243). TTY users may call 1-800-730-8913. Information is also available on Student Aid on the Web at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

Time Limit for Degree Completion
The Master of Science in Justice Administration must be completed within four years of enrolling. The Program Director must approve any request for extending the time limit.

Academic Standing
The following standards determine a student’s academic status:

1. A student on Conditional Admission must complete all prerequisite courses within the allotted time to be in good academic standing and be fully admitted to the program.
2. Conditionally admitted students must also maintain a 3.00 GPA after nine credits of graduate work or risk suspension from the program.
3. After full admission, a student whose GPA drops below 3.00 will be placed on academic probation. The student then has three bi-terms to improve the GPA to a 3.00 or higher. If the student fails to do so, the student will normally be suspended from the program.
4. Students may have a maximum of six credit hours of "C" on their graduate transcript that count toward the degree. Students may retake a course once to raise a “C” grade.
5. A student must pass a course that is a prerequisite for another course with a “B” or better before taking the following course.
6. Suspended students may ask for re-admission after sitting out a semester (two bi-terms).
7. Students must complete all program requirements within four years of matriculation.

High standards of personal honesty and ethics are essential for those in advanced career in justice administration. Candidates must demonstrate integrity in their characters and academic work. Students who submit the work of others as their own, intentionally fail to follow instructions on tests, or otherwise act unethically may be dismissed from the program.

Degree Requirements

The Master of Science in Justice Administration is comprised of 31 credit hours. All candidates complete a Common Core of coursework, a Specialization, and a Capstone Project.

The Master of Science in Justice Administration requires the following:

1. Completion of the Common Core of eight courses (24 credit hours)
   - CROL 531 Foundations in Justice Administration
   - CROL 532 Criminological Theories in Justice Administration
   - CROL 533 Research, Design and Analysis
   - CROL 534 Statistical Applications in Justice Administration
   - CROL 535 Legal and Ethical Issues in Justice Administration
   - CROL 536 Human Resource Management
2. Completion of two courses (6 credit hours) in one of the following Specializations:
   a. Law Enforcement
      CROL 631 Law Enforcement Administration
      CROL 632 Critical Issues in Law Enforcement

   b. Corrections
      CROL 633 Corrections Administration
      CROL 634 Critical Issues in Community Based Corrections

   c. Homeland Security
      CROL 635 Legal and Ethical Issues in Homeland Security
      CROL 636 Critical Issues in Homeland Security

   d. Juvenile Justice
      CROL 637 Juvenile Justice Administration and Management
      CROL 638 Critical Issues Within the Juvenile Justice System

   e. KLEC (one of the following)
      CROL 661 KLEC Law Enforcement Officer Training
      CROL 662 KLEC Law Enforcement Manager Training

3. Capstone project
   CROL 699 Capstone Project in Justice Administration

Curriculum Alignment
The MJA curriculum is aligned with the required content areas defined for master’s level programs by the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences.

Capstone Project
The Capstone Project of CROL 699 is an especially noteworthy component in a professional leadership program like the Master of Science in Justice Administration. Although CROL699 is only a one-credit course, it provides an essential bridge between class experience and real world professional experience. During this course, candidates who have completed at least 26 credit hours toward their degree complete a capstone project based upon their work in one or more previous courses. This project may entail

1) Research and written analysis of scholarly literature on a topic/issue in the field of criminal justice or justice administration.

2) Research and written analysis of data gathered from a justice agency or organization.

3) An oral presentation of research involving scholarly literature or field data made to an academic group of students and faculty or in a public venue.
Student performance on this project will provide an important summative evaluation of learning that will be used to assess the program.

Description of Courses

Below are concise descriptions of program courses

CROL 531  Foundations in Justice Administration.
This course is an overview of all the knowledge and skills of an administrator in the justice system. These skills include the ability to budget an organization with monetary limitation, the aptitude to know what needs the public has at a given time, and the resources to form professional integration and evaluation plans for new policy. This course will also be an overview of professional administrative ethics and morals, and an analysis of effective managerial processes as it pertains to civil liability.  (3 credit hours)

CROL 532  Criminological Theories in Justice Administration.
This course provides an overview of the founding principles of the major criminological theories, including sociological, biological, economic, environmental, and psychological theories about the etiology of crime. Theories can be empirically validated and translate their principles into policy will be examined, also in terms of the context in which they were presented and their implications on the justice administrative system (3 credit hours)

CROL 533  Research, Design and Analysis.
This course examines the different research design theories as applied to crime, criminal justice as a whole, and criminal justice organization administration. This course will discuss research analysis methods such as sampling, experimental and quasi-experimental design, survey and case studies. This course is designed to serve as a basic overview of holistic research and design methods. (3 credit hours)

CROL 534  Statistical Applications in Justice Administration.
This course provides an overview of the use of statistics in the management of a criminal justice organization. This course will have several different areas of focus. The first focus is the role of statistical application in criminal justice administration, where students will learn to use statistical research in public management. The second focus of this course is where students will learn about how to report criminal justice agency statistics.
