UNIVERSITY of the CUMBERLANDS

Rogers Scholar Scholarship
Application

To be considered for this full-tuition scholarship, the applicant should:

- be a graduate of the Rogers Scholars Program.
- have a 24 or higher composite ACT and a minimum 3.4 cumulative GPA.
- be accepted for admission by March 1.
- submit a completed FAFSA by March 1.

Send application to:
University of the Cumberlands
Financial Planning Office
6190 College Station Dr.
Williamsburg, KY 40769
Tel: 800-343-1609
Fax: 606-539-4490
Why are you interested in attending University of the Cumberlands?
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
What do you hope to accomplish after college?
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
The last sentence of the University’s Mission Statement says: “University of the Cumberlands encourages students to think critically and creatively so that they may better prepare themselves for lives of responsible service and leadership.” Please write a short essay describing the kind of service and/or leadership in which you have been involved and what those activities have meant to you. (You may attach additional pages to the application if necessary.)